

From The Call by Dawson Moore (dawsonguy@juno.com)

Abigail: 40s, leading a group prayer with the family of the boy she thinks deflowered her daught.

ABIGAIL

Dear Lord, we all ask you now for the patience and compassion to know the suffering of others, and to love our neighbors as ourselves. We pray for their souls to find their way, so that they won't continue down the road to eternal fire, as we accept their lack of belief in that fire. Even when they tell us that defiling our daughter for months was fun, we forgive them. We hope that Derek's drunken father and capitulating wife will realize the error of their whole lives, and learn to walk in righteousness. And until then, Lord, we pray that they won't be hit by buses, as they so righteously deserve. In Jesus' name we pray, amen.